

OVERDOSE PREVENTION AND RESPONSE TRAINING

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This free training is designed for community members, first responders, and medical and behavioral health workers. People Who Use Drugs (PWUD), their friends, and family are encouraged to attend.

WHEN:

Friday, November 18
2:00pm - 3:30pm MDT

WHERE:

Virtual
Microsoft Teams

Individual Registration Required

TRAINING OBJECTIVES:

- Prevent, recognize, and respond to an overdose
- Rescue breaths and recovery position demonstration
- Increase knowledge of overdose risk factors
- Know where to access treatment, harm reduction, and recovery support resources

REGISTER HERE TODAY!

You must register in advance for this meeting.

DRUG OVERDOSE
PREVENTION PROGRAM

